ABOUT ICLI

Islamic Center of Long Island was incorporated in 1982. The center serves a rapidly growing Muslim community living in Nassau and Suffolk counties. The task of establishing the ICLI Mosque in 1982 was only the beginning of a greater role that the Center assumed in the next 50 years. With the blessings of Allah (swt) and persistence of a dedicated group of people, ICLI has become a prestigious award winning faith-based institution serving diverse and vibrant communities on Long Island. ICLI is playing a pivotal role in the education and spiritual well being of thousands of Muslims living and working in NY Metropolitan Area.
